NASHUA'S CHOICE

JOAN BREWSTER

Nashua's candidate for the good citizenship contest, Miss Joan Brewster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Y. Brewster, 27 Concord street, who is sponsored by the Matthew Thornton chapter, D. A. R. Miss Brewster a senior at Nashua High, is editor-in-chief of "The Tattler," school paper, a member of the Glee club, prominent in school dramatics and vice president of the Dramatic club, secretary of the Debating club and a member of the Ski club.

Special to The Union.

CONCORD, Feb. 15—Elizabeth Ann Tilton, Concord High school senior, was selected as the outstanding "good citizen" among New Hampshire High school girls here Saturday at the annual contest sponsored by the New Hampshire society, Daughters of the American Revolution.

A board of five judges, among them Pres. Fred Engelhardt of the University of New Hampshire, selected Miss Tilton for the honor of representing this state in the annual Good Citizenship pilgrimage to Washington, D. C., in April, when the national society, D.A.R., holds its annual conference in the nation's capital. A total of 39 girls vied for the honor.

Named Alternates

Selected as alternates to Miss Tilton were Joan Brewster of Nashua, sponsored by Matthew Thornton chapter, D. A. R., of that city, who was adjudged second in the contest, and Edith Williamson of Pembroke, sponsored by Buntin chapter, third.

Miss Tilton was sponsored by Rumford chapter of Concord. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Tilton of 20 Holt street.

Sitting on the board of judges, along with President Engelhardt, were Mrs. Fred A. Crowell of Concord, chairman of the state D. A. R. Good Citizenship committee; Mrs. Robert F. Crosby, Derry, state regent; Mrs. Donald Matson, Concord, and Miss Sally Crockett, Portsmouth.

To Miss Tilton, as winner of the contest, will go a three-day visit to Washington, with the New Hampshire society, D. A. R., paying all expenses. Her visit will coincide with the first three days of the annual D. A. R. conference, scheduled to be held from April 17 to April 23. Representatives from all states in the Union will take part in the annual pilgrimage.

Candidates for the honor were interviewed Saturday morning, announcement of the result being made at a luncheon at Baker Memorial church. During the interviewing, contestants were addressed by Supt. of Schools Natl B. Burbank, who spoke on "Good Citizenship," and Maj. Otis G. Hammond, director of the New Hampshire Historical society, Mrs. Thomas H. Sherman introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Robert O. Blood, wife of the governor, was among the nearly 100 people attending the luncheon. She spoke briefly. Other speakers were Mrs. Crosby, Mrs. Ralph Crockett, Redstone, past regent and national librarian general; Mrs. Charles H. Carroll, Concord, past national and state officer, and Mrs. Harold Smith, Portsmouth, defense chairman of the State Federation of Women's clubs. Music was furnished by the Senior High school orchestra under the direction of Howard Nettleton.

A meeting of the Good Citizenship club, made up of former winners in the contest, resulted in election of Priscilla Gilchrist of Franklin, last year's pilgrim, as president. Miss Williamson was elected vice president; Miss Brewster, secretary-treasurer, and Nancy Neal, Dover, corresponding secretary.

Select DAR Pilgrimage Representative Saturday

Special to The Union.

CONCORD, Feb. 12—The privilege of representing New Hampshire in the annual Good Citizenship pilgrimage to Washington, D. C., will be conferred here next Saturday, when the New Hampshire society, Daughters of the American Revolution, stages its annual Good Citizenship contest.

Mrs. Fred A. Crowell, chairman of the state D. A. R. sponsoring committee, said that local D. A. R. chapters are sponsoring 39 high school girls as candidates for the honor. One pilgrim and two alternates will be selected from this group Saturday.

By virtue of her selection as the outstanding good citizen among New Hampshire high school girls, the winner in the contest will be given a trip to Washington in April, all expenses being paid by the New Hampshire society. Her visit to Washington will coincide with the first three days of the annual conference of the National Society, D. A. R., from April 17 to April 23.

Saturday's program, as announced by Mrs. Crowell, calls for the 39 candidates to gather at the New Hampshire Historical Society building on Park street at 9 a. m. Here they will be interviewed by the state committee and the winner will be selected. Members of this board of judges include Mrs. Crowell, President Fred Engelhardt of the University of New Hampshire; Mrs. Robert F. Crosby, Derry, state regent; Mrs. Donald Matson, Concord; Miss Sally Crockett, Portsmouth.

The winners will be announced at a luncheon served at Baker Memorial Methodist church. Former pilgrims will be guests at this luncheon, and various state and national D. A. R. officers will attend and speak. Mrs. Robert O. Blood, wife of the governor, will be a guest of honor.

DELEGATES TO D.A.R. PILGRIMAGE

Sponsored by the Mary Butler chapter, D. A. R., of Laconia, these two girls will be Laconia and Meredith High's official delegates to the D. A. R. Good Citizenship pilgrimage in Concord, February 14. Miss Lois Nadon, (left) is daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Nadon, Laconia and Miss Frances Ramsdell is daughter of Mrs. Lillian Ramsdell, Meredith.

Towle Senior Honored—Winners to Be Judged by Essays

Newport, Jan. 22—Miss Bronia Silewicz, 18-year-old senior at the Towle high school, has been the unanimous selection of the school body as their representative in the Good Citizenship Pilgrimage to be conducted by the New Hampshire Daughters of the American Revolution.

Miss Silewicz, one of the most talented students of the Towle school has had a scholastic average of over 90 during her high school career. In addition she is an accomplished drummer and is rated to be one of the best in the state. Bronia is also a member of the school glee club, a cheer leader, co-editor of the school paper, a member of the hockey team and of the orchestra, as well as president of the Girl Reserves and secretary of the senior class. Other activities include singing each Sunday as a member of the choir of St. Patrick's church.

Girls chosen for the Good Citizenship Pilgrimage, owing to travel restrictions due to the war, will not be asked to go to Concord this year. Instead, it has been requested that they submit an essay of from 200 to 300 words. The subject of the essay is to be: "In What Way Can High School Students Assist in Establishing Good Citizenship Relations in the Post-War Period?"

All essays submitted will be judged by Dr. Fred Englehardt, President of the University of New Hampshire. Winners in these essay contests will be sent as delegates to the national convention of the D. A. R.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES 1943 TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Class Day exercises were held Tuesday afternoon in the Town Hall. A march was played by the orchestra as the graduating class marched into the hall and took seats at the front of the hall. They were led by Craig Macmann who gave the welcome address. The Class History was given by Miss Sylvia Saarnijoki and was a complete resume of the activities and changes of the class in the past four years.

John E. Brooks presented the Hi-Y plaque to Miss Bronia Silewicz. This plaque has been presented for several years to that senior who has attended Towle all four years and has shown outstanding qualities in leadership, patriotism, cleanliness and is dependable and cooperative. Miss Silewicz was a D. A. R. representative, played hockey, skied, belonged to three musical societies, having one of the leading parts in the senior play, belonged to the Girl Reserves, was secretary of her class and took first prize in the Junior Prize Speaking contest. She was fourth on the list of honor students.

Woodsville Girl Named Winner of DAR Contest

Miss Marion Henderson of Woodsville, who was sponsored by Hannah Morrill Whitcher chapter, D. A. R., has been selected as New Hampshire's representative for the annual Good Citizenship Pilgrimage sponsored by chapters of Daughters of the American Revolution throughout the country.

Because of transportation difficulties, however, instead of being given a trip to the annual continental congress of the National society, D. A. R., with the winners from the other 47 states, the Woodsville girl will receive from the New Hampshire society, D. A. R., a $100 War Bond and will be a guest at the state conference of the New Hampshire Daughters of the American Revolution to be held in Laconia, April 6 and 7.

In years past the high schools throughout the state have selected their "best citizens," who in turn appeared before a committee of judges in Concord for a competition to determine the state winner. This season, because traveling was impossible, each girl was asked to write an essay on the topic, "In What Way Can a High School Student Promote Good Citizenship in the Post War Period?"

These essays were reviewed by a committee comprising Pres. Fred Engelhardt of the University of New Hampshire; Mrs. Robert Crosby, Derry, regent of the N. H. Daughters of the American Revolution and Mrs. Frederick Crowell, Concord, state chairman for the Good Citizenship Pilgrimage.

Honorable mention for second place in the contest went to Madeleine Richard of Pembroke, sponsored by Buntin chapter; and third awards, to Elaine Gray, Keene, sponsored by Ashuelot chapter; Ruth Collishaw, Exeter, sponsored by Exeter chapter, and Marie Schanda, Newmarket, sponsored by Granite chapter.

Betty Harlow Of Newport Honored

Towle High Student DAR Representative

Newport, Dec. 20.—Miss Betty Harlow, senior at Towle high school, has been chosen as the school's representative at the annual contest for the Good Citizenship award given each year by the state D.A.R., according to the announcement of Miss Natalie Sargent, district chairman of the Good Citizenship committee. Miss Harlow will be the official Newport representative of Reprisal chapter at the state competition.

According to the procedure, the senior class nominated three girls for the honor, naming Miss Dolores Beauchaine and Miss Celestine Kennedy in addition to Miss Harlow. The faculty then voted on the three, their balloting deciding the winner.

The girl is chosen annually for achievement in dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. Miss Harlow has been prominently identified with many extra-curricula activities at Towle high school as well as having been an honor student during her four years at the local school. She has been a cheer leader, a member of the Girl Reserves, has taken part in all dramatics involving the Class of 1947, and at present is a candidate for the girls' basketball team.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harlow of South Main street. Her father is a clerk at Miller Brothers clothing store.

Reprisal Chapter, D.A.R., met Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Ada R. Tenney on North Main Street with Mrs. Vincent J. Brennen, Sr., acting as co-hostess. Mrs. Leland W. Guile was elected the alternate delegate to the constitutional convention to be held in Washington, D. C., in May. Miss Natalie Sargent, district chairman of the Good Citizenship pilgrimage, announced that Miss Elizabeth Harlow had been chosen by Towle High School as the good citizenship pilgrim and that the district meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Guile on February 8, when the district pilgrim will be chosen.

A service was conducted by the chaplain, Mrs. Chester E. Pollard, in memory of the late charter members, Miss Marsha Edes and Mrs. Alvah Chase.

Parts of a diary written by Charles Emerson, great-grandfather of the regent, Miss Bernice Wyman, were read by Mrs. Hattie Chase. The items involved a trip around Cape Horn to San Francisco. A penny auction was conducted by the ways and means committee and refreshments were served.

Newport D.A.R. Told Of New Pilgrim Plan

District Choices To Be Interviewed For State Title

Newport, Dec. 9 — Reprisal Chapter D.A.R. met at the home of Mrs. Leland W. Gile Saturday afternoon, with Miss Bernice E. Wyman as co-hostess. The regent, Miss Wyman, presided.

During the business meeting it was reported that the state committee on good citizenship has decided to interview only one girl from each district in Concord every year, instead of one from each chapter. This will give more time to judge each girl fairly.

The girls from this district, which includes Hanover, Charlestown, Claremont, Keene, Warner and Newport, will be interviewed in Newport by a committee of three chosen from this district and including the superintendent of schools. The girl who is considered most outstanding will be chosen as district Pilgrim and will be interviewed in Concord on the day of the state contest in 1947, when one girl will be chosen as state Pilgrim. The state Pilgrim selected will join the Pilgrims representing the other states on the good citizenship pilgrimage to Washington, D. C., in May.

The Pilgrims of the district who were not chosen will be invited to Concord the day of the state contest. These girls will not be interviewed there, but will become members of the Good Citizenship club.

Miss Wyman, regent, announced that Mrs. Anderson, state chairman of good citizenship, had appointed Miss Natalie Sargent, a member of Reprisal Chapter, as good citizenship chairman of this district. The Regent also stated that Mrs. Anderson suggested that Reprisal Chapter sponsor two pilgrims this year, one from Towle high in Newport, and the other from the high school in New London. This suggestion was voted on and approved by the body.

Elizabeth Harlow To Represent D. A. R. From Newport

Miss Elizabeth Harlow, daughter of Mr. Harry Harlow of South Main street, was chosen from a selected group of three, as the D.A.R. representative from Newport.

Miss Harlow now qualifies as a candidate for the honor of state representative and if selected she will be sent to Washington, D. C., to attend the Annual Good Citizenship Convention.

The D.A.R. make their selection upon the recommendation of the teachers, who consider the students eligibility on the basis of their school records including; Scholarship, Leadership, Mental and Physical Courage, Cooperation and Honesty.

Mrs. David W. Anderson of Manchester is the Chairman for this state.

Miss Harlow was born in Newport and has attended the schools of Newport. She was chosen by the teachers and the student body.

Will Be Guests At Newport

DAR Good Citizens To Be Present at District Session

Special to The Union.

NEWPORT, Feb. 4—A district meeting of the DAR Good Citizenship Pilgrimage will be held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Leland Gile, when DAR regents and the Good Citizen selectees from Charlestown, Lebanon, Warner, Claremont and Newport will be present.

Reprisal chapter of Newport will sponsor good citizens from Towle High, Sunapee High and New London High schools. Percy Hathaway chapter of Warner will sponsor candidates from Warner and Contoocook.

Judges will be Rev. William Neal of Claremont, Mrs. Richard Perry of Charlestown, and Supt. of Schools Alfred W. Smith of Newport.

At the meeting two girls will be chosen to represent the district in Concord on March 1, when one good citizen will be chosen from the 12 girls from six districts to represent New Hampshire. A social will be held and refreshments served following the interviews.

Mrs. David Anderson of Manchester is the state chairman of the pilgrimage for 1947. This year the New Hampshire Good Citizen will journey to Washington, D. C., to participate in the Continental Congress.

CHAPTER - REPRISAL

Towle Senior Chosen DAR Good Citizen

Miss Faith Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton J. Sargent was chosen by the Towle High School faculty from the five girls nominated by the senior class as D.A.R. Good Citizen. Miss Sargent has been active in her class affairs all through her school career. She has been a winner in the prize speaking contests and had a lead in the junior and senior plays put on by her class. Faith has also been a cheerleader for the past two years.

Miss Sargent sings in the Church of the Epiphany choir and is active in the Girl Reserve.

This award, which was received by Miss Sargent, means that she will be interviewed at the District meeting candidates from Warner, Lebanon, in Claremont, Jan. 31, with the Charlestown, Newport and Claremont. The Good Citizenship Pilgrimage is comprised of six districts centering in Lisbon, Claremont, Portsmouth, Keene, Laconia and Manchester. Each district will send two delegates to Concord February 14, where they will be interviewed and one chosen to go to Washington to represent New Hampshire. All girls chosen as Good Citizens will be entertained by the State Society at a lunch in February. Mrs. Arnold Cutting of Claremont is chairman of this district and Miss Natalie Sargent of Newport is State Chairman.

The district meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Holden of Broad Street, Claremont on Jan. 31.

The Reprisal Chapter sponsors three girls from Towle High, Sunapee Central and New London. Miss Jane Luella Hill was chosen at Sunapee. Last year, 53 girls were sponsored by the D.A.R. chapters in the state.

Faith Sargent Wins DAR Citizen Award

Miss Faith Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton J. Sargent of Summit Road and senior at the Towle High School was chosen as one of the two Good Citizens to represent the Claremont District at the State Meeting in Concord, February 14.

The two candidates were chosen at a meeting held by the Ashley Chapter, D.A.R., Saturday afternoon, in Claremont. This honor that was bestowed on Miss Sargent and the Good Citizen, Ruth Pearce from Lebanon, means that they will have an opportunity to compete with two girls from each of the following D.A.R. Districts: Lisbon, Claremont, Portsmouth, Keene, Laconia, and Manchester. From this group of 12 girls, one will be chosen to represent New Hampshire at the Congressional Convention of D.A.R. in Washington, in May.

The judges who interviewed the girls at Claremont were Ernest Conlon of Lebanon, Mrs. A. W. Smith of Newport and Mr. Primmer of Claremont.

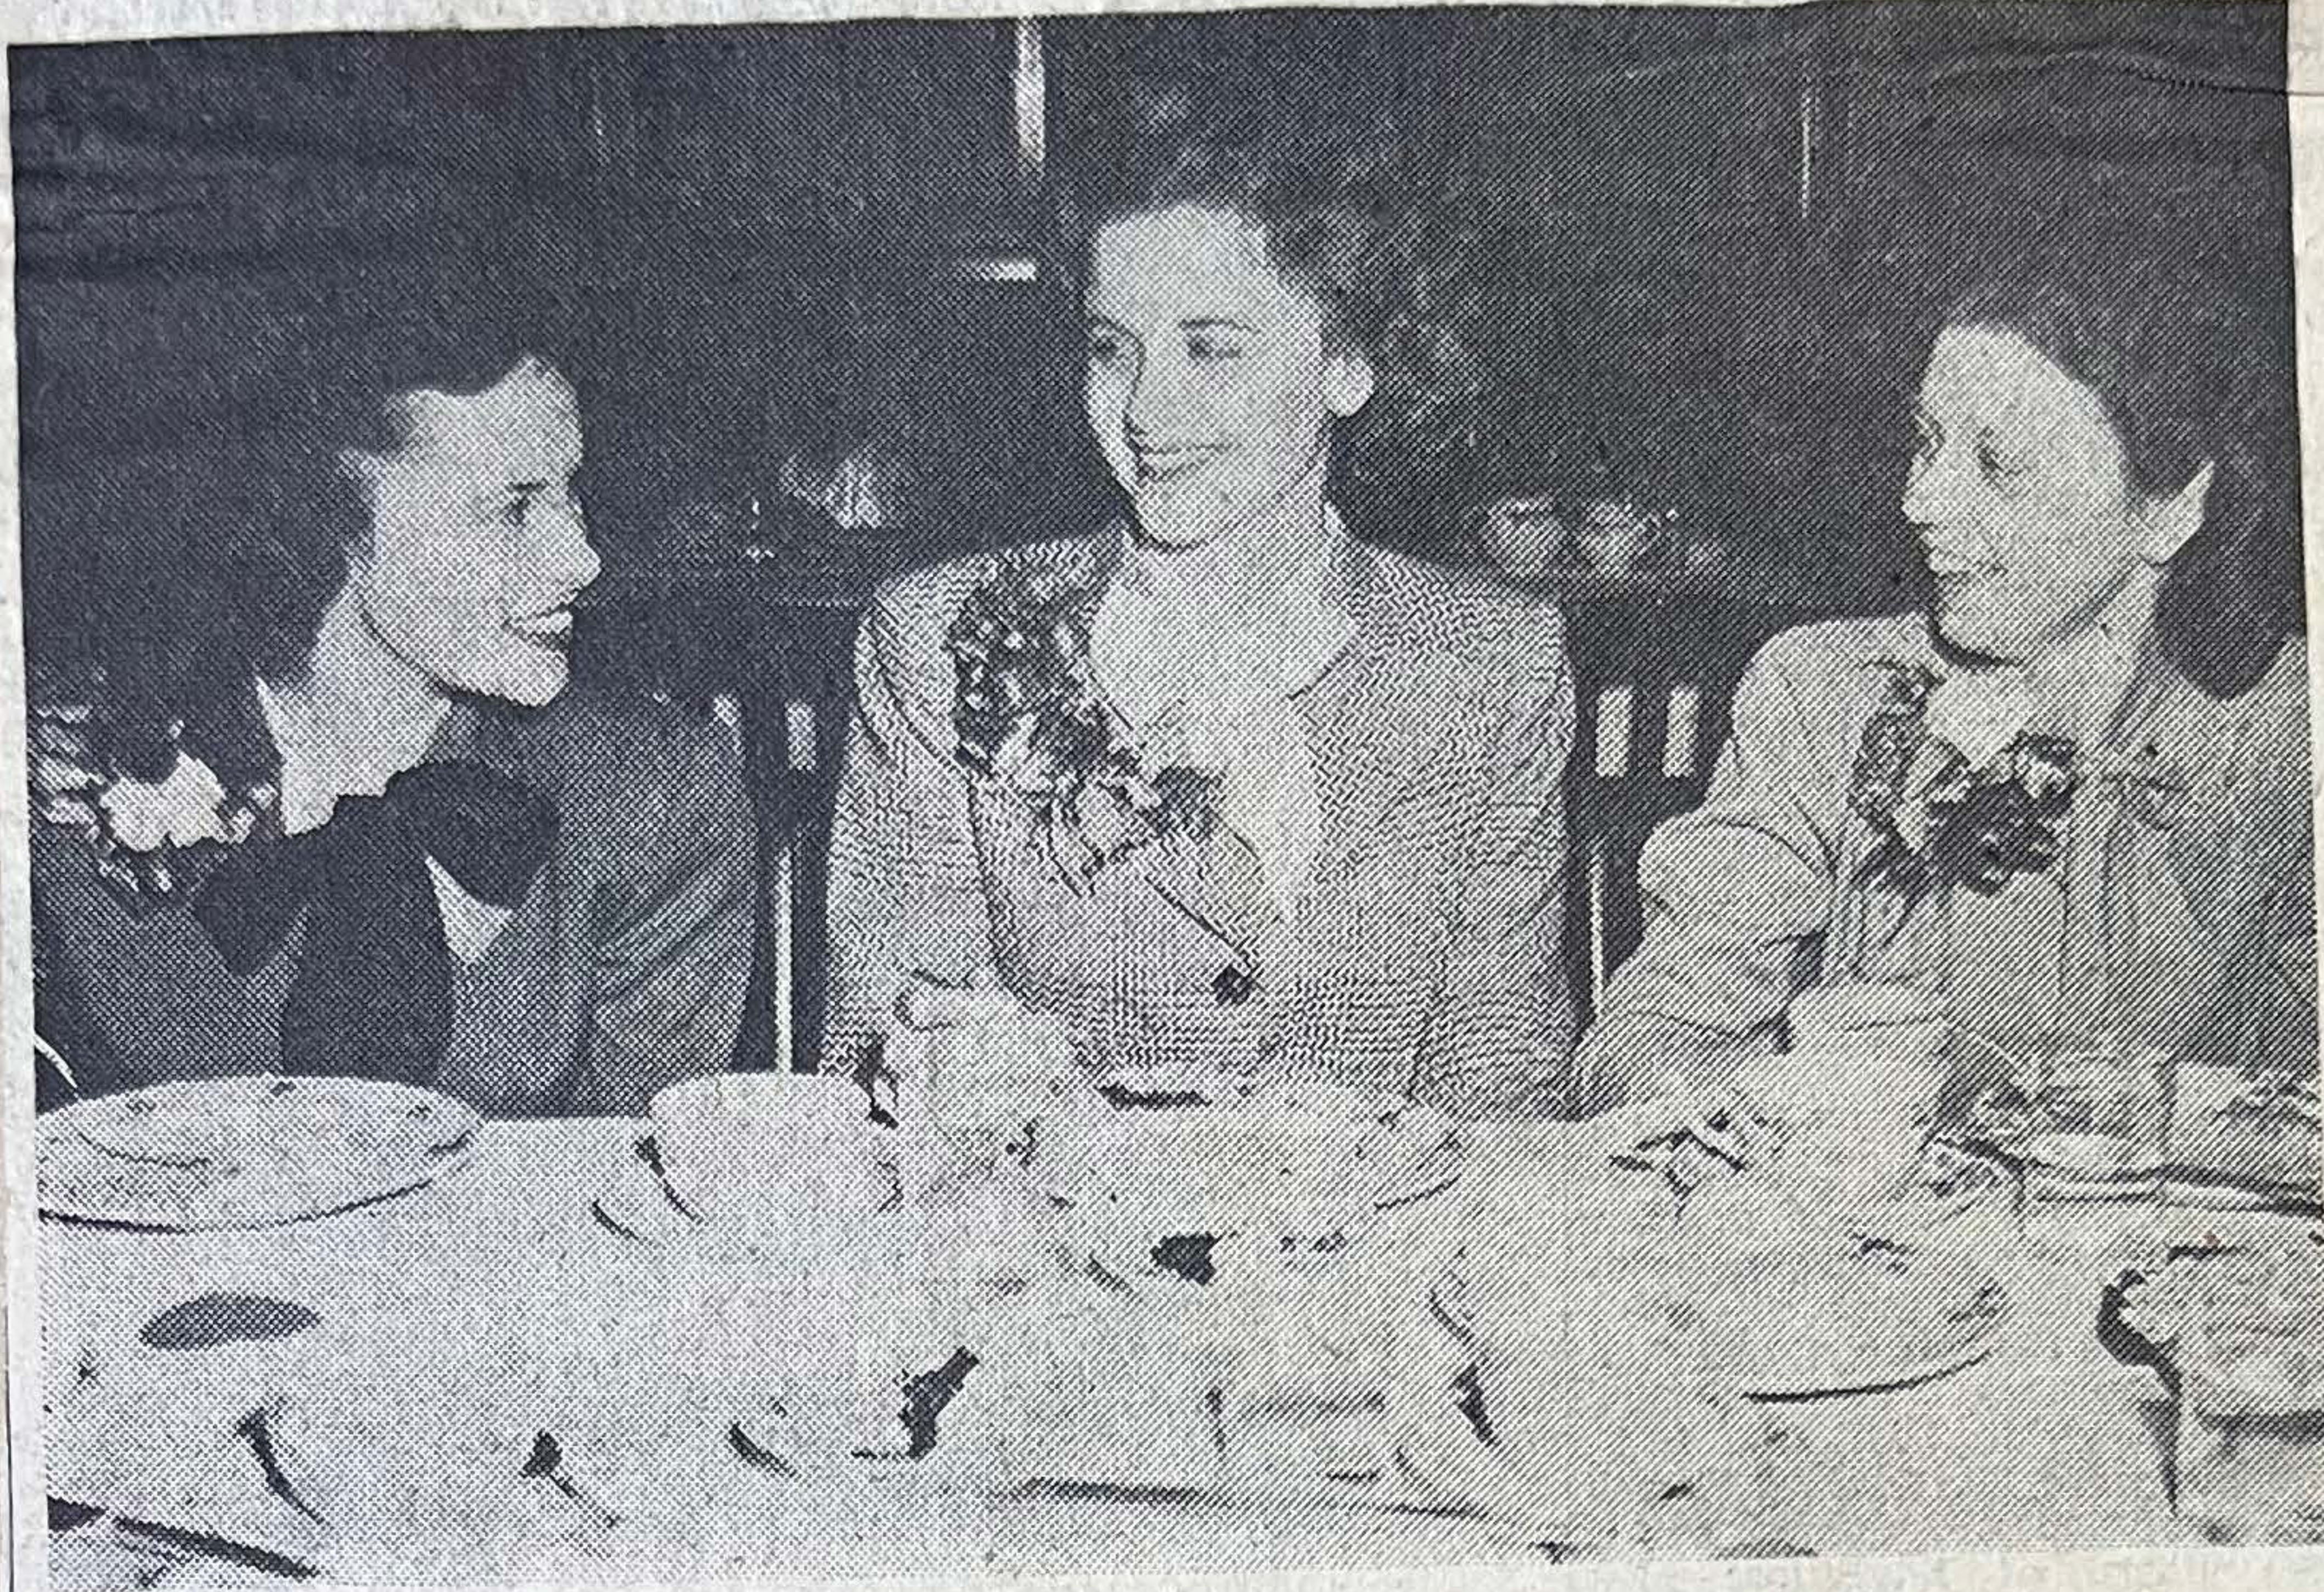

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Frank Holden, 189 Broad Street, Claremont.

IN CONTEST

Miss Jane L. Hill, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hill of Sunapee, who has been chosen to represent Sunapee for Reprisal chapter, DAR, of Newport in the district elimination contest for the DAR Good Citizenship Pilgrim award to be held in the near future in Claremont. Miss Hill, a senior, is manager of the girls' basketball team, a member of the Youth Fellowship, the Sunapee Community church, and was secretary of the junior class and a member of both the junior and senior play casts.

CANDIDATE

Newport's candidate in the state-wide DAR Good Citizenship contest is Miss Joan Shaw, 17, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Kenneth Shaw of 75 Laoreal street. She is a senior at Towle High school and was selected by faculty and students. Miss Shaw will be sponsored by the local Reprisal chapter of the DAR.

Three High School Girls Named As Candidates By Reprisal Chapter DAR

Three girls from Newport, Sunapee and New London have been selected this week for one of the highest honors to be given high school seniors.

They are Joan Shaw, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Kenneth E. Shaw of Newport; Rita Digilio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Digilio of Sunapee; and Evelyn Mae Bickford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bickford of New London.

The three girls, all honor students and active in school affairs, have been selected by their classes and their faculties to be sponsored by the Reprisal Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, as candidates in the state-wide contest for DAR girl for the state of New Hampshire.

Miss Natalie Sargent of Newport is state chairman of the Good Citizenship Pilgrimage Contest and is in charge of written examinations to be taken by each candidate throughout the State. The examinations will be judged by three state judges, and on February 25, the three Newport-area girls and other state candidates will be sent to Concord by DAR chapters. There the State DAR girl will be announced.

Prize this year, it has been announced, will be a $100 U.S. Savings bond, rather than trip to Washington, D. C., as has been in the past. Difficulties in transportation was given as the reason for the change.

Girls are selected by their senior classes on a basis of dependability, service, leadership and patriotism, and after each class selects three girls, the high school faculty chooses the one to be sponsored.

Miss Shaw is a 17-year-old senior at Towle High, an honor student, and is active in sports including basketball and field hockey. She is a member of the Glee Club, a member of the Towle Band.

Miss Digilio is a 17-year-old senior at Sunapee High school, an honor student, and a former Sunapee Carnival Queen in her freshman year. She is taking a college preparatory course and intends to attend the University of New Hampshire. She is member of the Glee Club and was a member of the Junior Prom Committee. She is active in basketball, being named to the all-star team last year.

Miss Bickford is a 17-year-old senior at New London High school, an honor student, a cheerleader, is treasurer of her class and is active in the Glee Club and in dramatics.

Named D. A. R. Girl

Joan Shaw

NEWPORT—Miss Joan Shaw, 17-year-old senior at Towle High School, daughter of the Hon. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Shaw, has been chosen to be sponsored in the state D.A.R. contest by the Reprisal Chapter of Newport, it was announced yesterday by Headmaster Ernest M. Perkins.

Miss Shaw, picked from a field of many contestants, is an honor student at Towle and was one of the top ten in her class when she was graduated from Richards Junior High School in 1945.

The popular young senior is well known locally for her participation in school and social events for many years. Appearing on the stage of the Town Hall when only four years old, Miss Shaw has continued to charm local audiences yearly with her stylings of songs and dances in such local classics as the Carnival Ball, the Charity Ball, the Legion Minstrel Shows and Firemen's Ball.

In school, Miss Shaw has won acclaim in dramatics, glee club work, hockey, basketball and public speaking and will be one of three co-eds to represent Newport at the annual Speaking Tournament to be held in Durham in February. Excelling in music as well as academic enterprises, she plays clarinet in the Towle band and orchestra, and it is expected that she will attend the All-State Music Festival this spring.

A native of Clinton, Me., Miss Shaw plans to attend the University of New Hampshire in September after being graduated from Towle this June.

The choice is based on dependability, service, leadership, loyalty, patriotism and co-operation. Miss Shaw will compete in examinations to be given in Concord January 22 and the results will be announced in February.

CONCORD, Feb. 25—A Hanover High school student, Miss Zandra Smith, was announced as the winner of the Daughters of the American Revolution's annual Good Citizenship contest, during a luncheon this noon at the Eagle hotel.

The announcement was made by Dr. J. Duane Squires of Colby Junior college, a member of the panel of three who made the selection. Miss Smith was not present.

About 48 of the 51 New Hampshire High school girls who participated in the contest were on hand for the luncheon and a tour of the State House. They were introduced to Gov. Sherman Adams and sat in during the meeting of the House of Representatives.

Chosen first alternate was Miss Jean Brown of Manchester Central High school. Second alternate was Miss Leona Morrill of Derry.

Speaker at the luncheon was Rt. Rev. John T. Dallas, retired Episcopal bishop of New Hampshire and one of the judges. The third judge was Mrs. Mildred McKay of Concord, state librarian.

Miss Smith will be presented with a $100 government bond in place of the trip to Washington, D. C., during the national convention of the DAR. The trip to Washington is being discontinued this year.

Miss Smith is the state's Good Citizenship Pilgrim.

Included among those present was Mrs. Clifton Caldon of Concord, who won the first Good Citizenship contest in 1936 while a student at Plymouth High school.

Serving as contest chairman was Miss Natalie Sargent of Newport. She was assisted by Miss Helen L. Hall of Alton Bay and Miss Eleanor Vinton of Concord.

The State House tour was conducted by Mrs. Walter Chase, Mrs. Thomas Sherman and Mrs. Charles Jackman, all of Concord.

Mrs. David Anderson of Manchester, state regent, presided. The program opened with a visit of the New Hampshire Historical society building.
