MRS. TYLER L. BARKER

Sudden Death at Hanover Saddens Community

Mrs. Ida M. Barker passed away at the Mary Hitchcock hospital, Hanover, Friday afternoon, May 12, 1922, following an operation. She had appeared to be in her usual robust health until very recently, and when an operation was found to be necessary, no fatal result was looked for by the family. When the surgeons found that her condition was hopeless, the blow was a severe one, not only to the immediate family and friends, but to the community at large.

Mrs. Barker was a native of Newport, the daughter of George H. and Harriet (Crooker) Comstock, and was born June 15, 1869. When she was about four years old her father, who was a brakeman on the Concord & Claremont railroad, was killed, and since that time she has been the constant companion of her mother, now far advanced in years. On March 1, 1886, she was united in marriage with Tyler L. Barker, then just entering on his business career as a clothing merchant. They had two children, George H., who died at the age of five years, and Constance B., now soloist in the Epworth Methodist Episcopal church at Cambridge, Mass. Miss Siema Aronen, now of Worcester, Mass., has also been one of the family group, having been regarded as a daughter since childhood. Mr. Barker has for years been prominent in Newport affairs. He has lately gone into the real estate business and was meeting with success.

Several years ago the Barkers designed and built one of the most attractive residences in town on Summit road, and it was here that funeral services were held on Monday afternoon. The house was filled to its capacity. Rev. David Lewis Yale of the South Congregational church and Rev. Edward Green of Exeter, a brother-in-law of Mr. Barker, officiated. Bearers were Hon. Olin H. Chase, Arthur G. Winter, Robert T. Martin, Hon. Jesse M. Barton, Dr. O. J. Shaw and Eugene P. Paul. Burial was in family lot in Maple street cemetery.

Mrs. Barker was an unusually active and useful woman. Besides being a model housekeeper, she found time to take a leading part in several organizations, having been twice Worthy Matron of Aurora Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, Regent of Reprisal Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution, President of the Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational church, treasurer of the Women's club and holding various offices in the Women's Relief Corps. In all these positions she served with

THE AMERICAN CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign Nation of many sovereign States; a perfect Union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag; and to defend it against all enemies.

REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

A paper on the State Conference, written by Mrs. Clement B. Chase, was read by the Regent, Mrs. Georgia B. Chase.

Mrs. Sam D. Lewis read, "Newport's Guest Book," written by Anne Parmelee Cushman, and it was very interesting. These were followed by a most enjoyable social hour and luncheon.

NEW YEAR'S MEETING OF REPRISAL CHAPTER

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., was entertained by Mrs. Mary McCrillis on Saturday afternoon, Jan. 2. The subject of the program was "Old Letters". While there was an interesting poem read by Mrs. Lewis, a letter "Supposed to have been written by George Washington" read by Mrs. McCrillis and some beautiful relics shown, the greatest interest centered in a series of letters bearing dates from 1788 to 1864, belonging to and read by Mrs. Claggett; and a paper said to have been written nearly sixty years ago by Mr. Amasa Edes, the great grandfather of the former editor of the Argus & Spectator. The title of the paper was "Newport Fifty Years Ago", carrying us back to the early years of the last century. It was a strong reminder of the trite saying that "Times repeat themselves" for there were the same complaints that we have today of high prices, extravagance in modes of living and increased taxes. The only item to which we of the present cannot plead guilty is, that it then "took from fifteen to twenty yards of material for a woman's dress".

The usual social hour, with refreshments, followed the close of the program and of a delightful afternoon.

REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R., MEETS AT MRS. LOVELL'S

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., held its February meeting on the 6th inst., at the home of Mrs. F. E. Lovell. The usual annual appropriations were made for the Ellis Island Fund and for the printing and distributing of the "Immigrants' Manual". It was also voted to send at once a box of new knitting and sewing materials to Ellis Island to supply work for the incoming women during their dreary days of detention there.

The program consisted of a very witty and entertaining paper entitled "Notes From California", written by Mrs. Robert G. Morrill and read by Mrs. F. P. Wyman. It gave a vivid picture of Los Angeles and the surrounding country and was much enjoyed by those present. Two songs were beautifully rendered by Miss M. E. Richards, after which the meeting adjourned for refreshments and a social hour.

Reprisal Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, enjoyed a delightful recital by Mrs. Goldina Lewis Sibley at the home of Mrs. Sam D. Lewis Saturday afternoon. She rendered several selections in both the American and foreign languages.

MRS. CLAGGETT READS PAPER ON "LIGHTS OF OTHER DAYS"

Reprisal Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met at the home of Mrs. Fred P. Claggett Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Claggett was assisted by Mrs. Fred W. Tilton and Mrs. Fred P. Wyman as hostesses.

Mrs. Claggett gave a most interesting paper on "The Lights of Other Days," taking up the lights from the very earliest ages down to the present day. Our forefathers enjoyed the lights from huge fireplaces and pine knots; then candles and whale oil lamps. Silver candlesticks were used in the parlors; brass, iron and tin, in the other rooms. The silver candlesticks were very beautiful and are great treasures today. The first of these lamps was known as the "Betty lamp" and was made of metal. The glass lamp was made of Sandwich glass.

Mrs. Claggett gave the history of the art of glass making, and of those whose names stand out in connection with the making, such as "Baron Steigels".

She illustrated with very beautiful candlesticks in brass, iron, Dolphin glass and lamps of several periods.

A social, with refreshments, completed a very pleasant afternoon.

D. A. R. MEETING

Flag Day was most fittingly observed by Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., at the home of Mrs. George A. Dorr on Pine Street.

The program was in charge of Mrs. John McCrillis and included the following numbers: Selection on the piano, Mrs. Dorr; vocal solo, Miss Margaret Richards, accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Burnham; history of the flag, Mrs. Georgia Chase; recitations, Mrs. John Merry; flag dance, Miss June Fisher; vocal solo, Miss Margaret Richards, accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Burnham; selection on the piano, Mrs. Dorr.

OPENING MEETING OF REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., held its opening meeting at the home of Miss Marcia Edes, Saturday, Nov. 6, with a fair number of members present.

The usual business program was held after which Mrs. Georgia B. Chase gave a very interesting report of the State Conference held at Exeter.

Miss Georgianna Wilcox gave a delightful book review of "The Kingdom Round the Corner" by Coningsby Dawson. Refreshments were served and a social hour followed.

The following appreciation of Mrs. Lizzie M. Richards, written by Miss Georgianna Wilcox, was read at the meeting;—

"It may not be unfitting for me to speak briefly of one of our charter members, Mrs. Richards, who has passed away since our last meeting. In all the years of her connection with Reprisal Chapter, until her strength failed, her interest in and loyalty to it never wavered. No plan for its development was lacking in her support. We were often entertained in her beautiful home, in which she was an ideal hostess. Our flag, her gift, also testifies her loyalty. We recall her tireless service in Red Cross work during the World War, when no task was too heavy for her to help to lighten. Her benefactions were many and varied for no call for aid was unheeded by her, her only fear being that she might fail to do her part.

"Those of us who counted Mrs. Richards among our real friends can never forget her trustworthiness and the deep and ready sympathy she felt in all that pertained to us.

"Her life, like the life of all, was one of light and shadow. Someone has beautifully said: 'God standeth in the shadow, keeping watch above His own' and today our thoughts go out to our friend and member who has so recently passed beyond all shadow into the eternal sunlight of God's love.' "

REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of Mrs. S. D. Lewis, Saturday, Dec. 4th. At the close of the regular business meeting two vocal solos were charmingly rendered by Mrs. Mildred Gregg of Sunapee. Mrs. Gregg is a pupil of Mrs. Goldina Lewis Sibley.

"A Street in 1776," was the subject of a talk by Mrs. F. P. Claggett. Mrs. Claggett gave a most interesting description of a street which she visited at the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition.

Each house on the street was an almost exact reproduction of the old time houses of long ago, very fine in their quaintness and splendors.

Refreshments followed by a social hour brought to a close a very enjoyable meeting.

MRS. ROGERS SPEAKS TO REPRISAL CHAPTER

Members of Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., were most delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Elmer Dodge, Saturday, Jan. 1.

The regular business meeting was held, after which Mrs. T. A. Rogers read a paper on her trip by auto from Coast to Coast.

Mrs. Rogers' paper was most interesting, telling of the funny things that happened, the dangers that accompany such a trip, and the grandeur of the country as she saw it.

At the close of the meeting dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

REPRISAL D. A. R. MEETING

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of Mrs. John McCrillis Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Sam D. Lewis read "The Cape Cod Journal of the Pilgrim Fathers," re-printed from "Moreris' Relations." This book describes very interestingly all of the happenings of the Pilgrims, day by day, for the first few weeks after their arrival on the American shore.

Delicious refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by all.

SURPRISE PROGRAM FOR REPRISAL CHAPTER

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., met with Mrs. S. H. Edes, Saturday, Feb. 5th. The usual business meeting was held, after which the program was turned over to Mrs. V. J. Brennan.

Mrs. Brennan with the able assistance of Mrs. John McCrillis, had prepared a delightful surprise for the members in the form of a fine entertainment.

The opening number was a recitation by Master Francis Edes. This was followed by several readings by Miss Constance Perkins; fancy dancing by Miss Ida Eintout, a pupil of Miss Katherine Trow; two vocal solos by Miss Mae Kisro; the Charleston, executed by Miss Thelma Colby and her brother, Mason Colby; two violin solos by Miss Katherine Trow. Miss Elberta Deming presided at the piano.

At the close of the entertainment dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., met with Miss Ellen H. Rogers Saturday, March 5, at which time Mrs. S. C. Newell read a most interesting article entitled, "We Look at Our World" by McAllister Coleman. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

REPRISAL CHAPTER

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of Mrs. F. P. Wyman Saturday, May 7.

At the close of the usual business meeting, vocal and instrumental solos were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Wesley Thompson.

Mr. C. J. Thompson gave a most interesting talk on "Our Heritage," depicting in vivid words the beauty and grandeur of this wonderful country, which is "Our Heritage."

At the close of the meeting, dainty refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour was enjoyed.

REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R., ENTERTAINED AT BALDPATE

A meeting of some note was held at Baldpate Inn on the afternoon of Flag Day when Reprisal Chapter, Daughters of American Revolution entertained Past State Regent Mrs. Warren and Samuel Ashley Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, of Claremont.

A delicious lunch was served at 1 o'clock and a social hour enjoyed by the ladies.

The beautiful flag, given to the Reprisal Chapter by Mrs. Richards, was draped across one corner of the dining room and small flags placed at each plate.

The program of the afternoon was opened with a trio of beautiful solos by Mrs. Goldina Lewis Sibley.

Mrs. Chase, regent of Reprisal Chapter, made a short cordial address to the ladies and extended words of welcome to Mrs. Warren, Past State Regent, and to Samuel Ashley Chapter of Claremont.

Mrs. Freeman, regent from Claremont, responded in a very pleasing manner, thanking Reprisal Chapter for their hospitality.

Mrs. Warren, past State Regent, then made a wonderful address, giving the history of the Flag from the time of its conception up to the present time. A pleasing feature of the address was the display by Mrs. Warren of every flag of all the countries of the world. She also told of some of the work done by different chapters of the state, gave an outline of the big conferences held at Washington and described the big auditorium to be built there by the Daughters of the Revolution.

In closing, Mrs. Warren gave the two last addresses, which she made before the conferences in Washington.

Mrs. Chase, in a few fitting words, thanked Mrs. Warren for her kindness in coming to us.

As retiring regent, Mrs. Chase then presented the gavel to Mrs. Ethel Wyman, the new regent, who accepted with a few very pleasing remarks.

The gavel was presented to the Reprisal Chapter by Mrs. Robert G. Morrill of Beverly Hills, Calif.

The singing of America and the Salute to the Flag brought to a close in a most fitting way a meeting, which those present will long remember.

The very effective committee in charge were Mrs. Brennan, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Chellis and Mrs. Chase.

D. A. R. MEMBERS SHINE IN A ONE-ACT DRAMA

Members of Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., enjoyed a luncheon and an afternoon of fun at the Newport House last Saturday, the entertainment program including a round of "stunts" in a birth-month rollecall, and the presentation of the one-act comedy drama, "Sardines." The cast of characters was as follows:

Mrs. Eaton Gloria Swanson
Alfreda Doolittle Pola Negri
Lizzie Pike Mae Murray
Lucy Watkins Theda Bara
Miss Carroll Lillian Gish

Needless to say the screen stars named were not present in person, but they were ably represented by Mrs. H. B. Metcalf, Mrs. F. P. Claggett, Mrs. S. C. Newell, Mrs. Fred Tilton and Mrs. Edes, respectively, and the fun produced was probably as great as would have been the case if the famous ladies had been on the job. The play was very ably presented and much enjoyed. Requests that the piece be repeated from the stage of the Opera House are being considered, but probably will not be granted.

The tables for the luncheon were set in the private dining room, and were prettily decorated with roses and lighted candles. There were 28 present. The committee in charge were Mrs. Edes and Mrs. Tilton.

MRS. DANA ADDRESSES REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., met at the home of Mrs. Grace Lovell Saturday, February 4th. Interesting letters from absent members were read. The address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. George H. Dana on "My Memories of Singapore."

Mrs. Dana told in a most delightful way of her life at Singapore, describing the country and its climate, which is very hot, everyone arising at 5:00 o'clock in the morning for their daily exercise, either riding or walking, because of the intense heat through the day.

The customs of the people she described as very much alike, everyone doing the same thing at the same time every day. The fruits she spoke of being very delicious, especially the pineapple, which is so sweet and juicy it can be eaten from the shell with a spoon.

There are 28 different kinds of bananas, although some are not edible. Mrs. Dana's talk was not only interesting, but very instructive, making this country so far away, seem so much more real and nearer to us.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and a social hour enjoyed.

A TRIBUTE

The following tribute of Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., to Anne Parmelee Cushman, was read by the secretary, at its last meeting:

"With heart threads of crimson,
And soul threads of gold
Our life web is woven,
Swift, fold upon fold."

Since our last meeting another member of Reprisal Chapter has solved the mystery that lies beyond our earthly life. Anne Parmelee was born in Brooklyn, New York, June 1st, 1860, and there she was educated, but her summers were usually spent here. In the early 70's the family returned to Newport and made a permanent home in which her younger years were spent. When the library was opened she became its first librarian. In that work she came in contact with many and her life and influence were broadened. You who knew and loved her can be told nothing new by me, therefore I shall speak more particularly of her work in connection with the chapter which she loved and gladly served. I had always thought of her as a charter member and was surprised in looking over the records to learn that she didn't become a member until 1899, her name and that of Miss Mary Kempton, another beautiful character, being presented at the same meeting. In 1901 Miss Parmelee received a vote of thanks for the "artistic year book" she had prepared. This was the first of a since unbroken series. Previously it was the custom at each meeting to assign subjects for the following one. For two years beginning in 1907 she served as regent of the chapter. During her regency the project of a new wall for Maple Street cemetery was originated. Into all schemes for improving the state of our treasury she entered with enthusiasm and worked earnestly. In 1920 Mrs. Cushman, then living in Washington, was elected our alternate to Continental Congress of which she sent us a very interesting report that was read at the May meeting.

The last time she met with us was in September, 1923, when she entertained the chapter in her home. Speaking afterwards enthusiastically of the pleasure and success of the afternoon she said the thought she should make it an annual affair so that she could keep more closely in touch with the Chapter, but when she returned to us the following summer we knew only too well whither she was tending. The memory of her long years of illness is fresh in our minds, years that held no murmurings or complainings, though life had so much that was beautiful and desirable for her. At last she sank gently to sleep and—

"She dropped the shuttle, the loom stood still,
The weaver slept in the twilight
gray—
Dear heart, you will finish your beautiful web
In the golden light of a perfect day."

MRS. CUSHMAN DEAD

Community Mourns Passing of Well-Known Woman

Mrs. Anne Parmelee Cushman, beloved wife of Avery F. Cushman, died at her home on Belknap Avenue, Jan. 13, 1927.

"Friend after friend departs, who has not lost a friend?" As the years go on the query of this old hymn recurs to us with added force. Now one of our dearest has gone. As disease laid his hand upon her, nothing that human love and skill could do to aid recovery was left undone but all was in vain and she slowly drifted out "beyond the bar."

We recall her many years spent as librarian, during which, by her tact and unflinching courtesy, she won a large place in the affection of the patrons. Then came her happy marriage. "Five years of perfect happiness", to use her own words, were given her, the winters of which were spent in Washington and New York, but summer found her with us again. It was her lot to see all her family pass away, one by one, but her sorrows were all bravely met and bravely borne. Loyalty to family and friends was a marked characteristic. In many respects hers was a rare soul gifted with enthusiasm, and a keen sense of humor. She loved nature, books and art. She was also an artist and her pictures hang in many a home today though the hand that painted them has lost its skill. Mrs. Cushman was an ex-Regent of Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., and an earnest church woman. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, step-daughter and a host of friends. Kipling says:

"God gives all men all earth to love,
But since man's heart is small
Ordains for each, one spot shall prove Beloved over all."

To our friend Newport was that beloved spot. Its encircling tree-covered hills were dear to her for their beauty and hallowed associations and it seems eminently fitting that she should be laid at rest with her kindred on the hillside here. Though the law be "as dust to dust" for the body,

"Birthless and deathless and changeless the spirit remaineth forever;
Death hath not touched it at all, dead though the house of it seemeth."

THE OLD REPRISAL AND THE NEW

The following poem was composed and read by Miss Georgianna Wilcox at the last luncheon of Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R. The Chapter takes its name from the old Reprisal of Revolutionary fame.

The first Reprisal in the days of yore,
And the deadly weapons that she bore,
All spoke of war and strife,
Of the hardships of a mariner's life.
But splendid her service, well won her rest,
As slowly she sank 'neath ocean's crest.
Oh, what changes the years have brought
Since Yankee with British bravely fought
For the first Reprisal was manned
by "Jolly Tars"
While the new one is womanned by
D. A. R's.
Her weapons are prayers that wars
may cease,
That o'er all lands may brood God's peace.
Today she is freighted with memories of gold
Of those who have left us, whom we hold
All so dear. But our compass true
Points to ports to be gained, work to do
Gives no time for yesterday's fret and care,
But on and on bids us blithely fare
On the uncharted sea of this glad new year,
Filled with high courage and lusty cheer,
We'll show to the world that no
"Jolly Tars"
Can excel in sobriety the D. A. R's.

Six Women Whose Fathers Fought In Revolution Honored by D. A. R.

WASHINGTON, April 22 (AP)—Six women who truthfully can say, "My own father fought in the revolutionary war" were paid homage today by the Daughters of the American Revolution. Five of the six regularly receive D. A. R. pensions.

Mrs. Walter L. Tobey, Ohio, recently described how Mrs. Mariah Storts Allen of Lexington, whose father, John Storts, was at Valley Forge, recently went up in an airplane just for the thrill of it. She was a daughter of his second wife.

Mrs. Pool Newson and Miss Sarah Pool live on their ancestral acres, two miles from Gibson, Ga. Their father, Henry Pool, fighter in the war for independence was married three times, and they are daughters of his third wife.

Only 14 years old was Solomon Loring when he served as aide to Col. Bost, enlisting from Hingham, Mass. Angeline Loring Avery, daughter by his third wife, still lives at Willimantic, Ct.

The father of Mrs. Annie Knight Gregory of Selins Grove, Pa., was drummer boy in Captain Beatty's company, fifth Pennsylvania battalion. He was Richard Knight, who died in January, 1850.

Of sturdy New England extraction, Mrs. Caroline Phoebe Randall, Springfield, Vt., proudly claims a sire who saw the battle of Bunker Hill and served the soldiers on Copp's Hill with water. Her mother was second wife of this Stephen Hassam, who was born in Boston, 1761, and died in Charlestown, N. H., 1861.

REAL DAUGHTER HAS 105TH ANNIVERSARY

WILLIMANTIC, Conn., May 1.—Mrs. Sarah Bosworth Bradley, one of the two known actual Daughters of the American Revolution in the State, and one of the 19 in the country, today observed her 105 birthday. She has been blind for the past two years, but readily recognized old friends by their voices when presented to her today.

D. A. R. VOTES TO STAND APART

Will Not Affiliate With Other Organizations

WASHINGTON, April 21 (A. P.)—By an overwhelming vote the 42d Continental Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution, today endorsed the policy of its president general, Mrs. Russell William Magna, of nonaffiliation with other patriotic organizations.

The resolution said the daughters reaffirmed previous resolutions that "neither the society nor any part thereof shall identify itself in any official capacity with any other organizations" and "expressly states that it cannot affiliate in any way with other organizations or groups of organizations, but that it may cooperate when it seems advisable, with any organization having objects kindred with its own."

It was given approval by a standing vote which showed an overwhelming number of the daughters in favor of Mrs. Magna's stand. No count of those voting was announced.

LOCAL GENEALOGISTS HONORED BY INSTITUTE

Mr. Walter R. Nelson, of Mill Village, and Mrs. Mary S. L. Emerson, of Star Route 2, Newport, who have won local recognition for their work in genealogical and historical research, have been honored by being included in the list of the leading active genealogical researchers in the United States, in The Handbook of American Genealogy recently issued by The Institute of American Genealogy of Chicago.

Recognition in this field affords access to the extensive lineage files of The National Clearing House for Genealogical Information, as well as professional contact with genealogists in 1,331 counties throughout the United States and in 16 foreign countries, which will enable them to expand the scope of their work very materially.

It will be of interest to the members and prospective members, and especially to the registrars of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Sons of the American Revolution, Colonial Dames, and other hereditary-patriotic societies to learn that local residents have formed these international contacts, because they will make possible the necessary genealogical research to qualify for membership without outside aid.

THE PILGRIMS
I seem to see the Pilgrim bow
Their weary heads to pray
In thankfulness to God for food,
That First Thanksgiving Day.
A tiny band of colonists
Upon a lonely coast
What made these simple people great
And why does History boast?
They ate from wooden trenchers
A plain and scanty fare;
The cabins they had slaved to build,
Were rough and cold and bare.
But throughout all their wanderings—
Whatever soil they trod,
In famine or in plenty,
They did not forget their God.

WIFE OF PRESIDENT NOW D. A. R. MEMBER

Mrs. Roosevelt Approved
at Annual Congress

WASHINGTON, April 16 (A. P.)—In a ceremony of candle-lighting on a cross, Daughters of the American Revolution today memorialized their dead—2379 members deceased since last they met here a year ago.

Thus began the week-long 42nd annual continental congress, the first in which the daughters could claim Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as a member.

The President's wife was one of 840 with lineage-lines traced back to the Revolution approved as members at a board meeting yesterday. It was no trouble to trace her line—that had all been done long before by other Rooseveltian D. A. R.'s.

Solemn was the ceremony by which the daughters began their annual conclave. It has been their custom to make a memorial floral wreath, white flowers being placed in position on a green background as tributes to groups were given. Today the plan was changed to conform to the Easter season.

Candles on the cross were lighted, one by one, in a service conducted by Mrs. Raymond G. Kimbell, chaplain general, Mrs. Russell William Magna, president general, eulogized the deceased members.

Later, the D. A. R. official banner was placed in the great choir and sanctuary of the Washington Cathedral, Bishop James E. Freeman accepting the banner and making an address.

Pres Gen Magna later entertained members of her cabinet at dinner.

Little politics was promised for the week, since it is not an "election year" and only two vacancies exist for the positions of honorary vice president general. There are three candidates—Mrs. John Laidlaw Buel, Connecticut; Mrs. James T. Morris, Minnesota, and Mrs. Cassius C. Cottle, California.

Some controversy may develop on the subject of cooperation with other organizations, Mrs. Magna having taken a stand "The D. A. R. for the D. A. R.," rather than joining with other patriotic societies in aggressive drives for strong national defense and against recognition of Soviet Russia.

Oct 11 & 12 1933
Mrs. S. C. Newell, Mrs. Charles J. Emerson, Mrs. Fred P. Wyman and Miss Bernice Wyman attended the State D. A. R., convention in Laconia last week. Miss Wyman acted as page at the convention.

the death of his first wife Caroline's father married Lucy A. Miller, a school teacher.

Stephen Hassam was a man of considerable importance in Charlestown, where he had been very successful at his trade, and where some of his clocks still tick the hours away. Among these are a grandfather's clock in a home in Gilsum, the town clock in the belfry of the Unitarian church at Charlestown, and "the clock in the wall," an unusual timepiece with two faces, one in each of two rooms in a house on Bellows Falls road, Vermont. The works are concealed in a partition and are wound by opening a cupboard door. Roy Hassam of Claremont, a grandson, treasures a watch made by his grandfather.

Five children were born to Stephen and Lucy Miller Hassam, of whom one died young. The fourth child, Caroline, was born Sept. 19, 1849, when her father was 85 years old. The oldest child, John Ferdinand, served as a private in Co. B, 14th Regiment N. H. Volunteers. Stephen Hassam died Feb. 4, 1861 at the age of 97.

Vt. P. SPRINGFIELD Charlotte M. R. Real D. A. R.

Mrs. Caroline Randall, 88, whose father fought in the American Revolution.

SPRINGFIELD—Christmas was a gala day for Mrs. Caroline Randall, 88, of South Springfield, real daughter of the Revolution, for she received holiday greetings and gifts from all over the country. Mrs. Randall is an honorary member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and many chapters of the society from all over the country sent her remembrances.

Mrs. Randall received some 400 Christmas cards, coming from nearly all the 48 states of the union, and about 90 presents besides a considerable sum of money from various D. A. R. chapters and friends. The gifts included a basket of fruit from Florida and one from Texas.

A highlight of the celebration of the day for Mrs. Randall was her first Christmas tree of her very own. She also enjoyed the family tree and ate a turkey dinner with all the "fixin's".

Mrs. Randall observed her 88th birthday September 19, at which time she also received many greetings from various sections of the country. She is in excellent health except for a bit of rheumatism and reads without difficulty. She enjoys the radio and automobile trips.

She was born when her father, Stephen Hassam, was 90 years old. He carried water to the colonial troops at the battle of Bunker Hill when 15 years old and later served as an aid to Lafayette.

Come to Real D.A.R.

A Vermont reader tells me that Mrs. Eugene Randall of Springfield, Vt., who recently observed her 88th birthday anniversary, is one of the few living "real daughters" of the American Revolution. My informant says Mrs. Randall was born when her father was 90 years old. The father, Stephen Hassam, carried water for the Colonial troops at the Battle of Bunker Hill. Mrs. Randall enjoys motoring but has no desire to take an air flight.

SOUTH CHURCH TO MARK 160th ANNIVERSARY

Observance to Begin With Recital by Clarence D. Mooney, Former Organist; Historical Pageant Saturday Evening; Special Church Services

Newport's oldest church group, the Congregationalists, will observe the 160th anniversary of the sect in Newport on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 28 and 29, with special events and services at the church. The program will include an organ recital by Clarence D. Mooney of Laconia, former organist of the local church, a church family supper, special devotional services, and a historical pageant depicting events in the life of the local parish since the town was first settled in 1766, and the first church organized in 1779. It is also expected that many of the former pastors will return and participate in the observance.

Beginning on Saturday, Oct. 28, the first event in connection with the observance will be the organ recital at the church by Mr. Mooney, a former resident of this town and organist at the church. His playing is well known to all of the older people and many of the younger set, and a large audience will undoubtedly be in attendance at this recital which begins at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

A social hour will be in order from 4:30 to 6:00 o'clock the same afternoon, which will give the members of the church families and people who were former members and are returning to town for the observance, an opportunity to renew old acquaintances and talk over old times.

At 6:00 o'clock, an anniversary supper will be served in the church parlors and members of the church and their families are expected to attend.

The feature event of the celebration will be presented Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, and will include the historical pageant which is now in the process of preparation. This pageant will include a series of ten tableaux showing the high points of interest in the history of the church in Newport. A special musical program, also in rehearsal, will form the setting for the pageant and the program as a whole is expected to be one of the finest ever presented to a local audience. Another feature of the evening will be the burning of the church mortgage.

On Sunday morning, at the regular morning worship service at 10:30 o'clock, the sermon will be given by Rev. Frank E. Bigelow of Bridgewater, Conn., who served here as pastor from 1924 to 1937. Special music will also be sung during the service.

Rev. and Mrs. Clarence H. Clay, the present pastor and his wife, will entertain for the members of the church on Sunday afternoon, when tea will be held at the parsonage from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock.

At 7:00 o'clock in the evening, Congo Young People's group meet to observe "Former Members Night." All of the older people of the church, who were formerly members of the church young people's are particularly urged to attend they will be guests of honor young people that evening.

According to town history, "The Congregational church of Newport virtually came with the first party of settlers, early in June, 1766. Reliable tradition informs historians that their very first day here was the Sabbath; and that they observed it by unitedly worshipping God under the shade of a spreading tree." It is also said that "their Congregational descendants have not allowed a single Sabbath since then to pass without some public religious service."

"On Oct. 28, 1779," the history continues, "with the assistance of Rev. Aaron Hall of Keene, a Congregational church was formed consisting of seventeen members, and since that time the church has continued."

"The frame of the first meeting-house was raised on June 26, 1793, being built by the town and standing at the foot of Claremont Hill on the cone-shaped elevation to the left of the present highway as it bears toward Unity. The present church edifice was erected in 1822, as a private enterprise, and dedicated to the service of Almighty God on Thursday, March 13, 1823. It was remodelled in 1868 and again in 1928."

Reprisal Chapter Hears Talk on World Conditions by Rev. Clarence H. Clark; Christmas Carols Sung by Girl Scouts Led by Miss Phyllis Dorr

A well attended meeting of Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R., was held at the home of Mrs. John McCrillis, with Mrs. Hubbard Barton as co-hostess, last Saturday at which time Rev. Clarence H. Clark, pastor of the South Congregational Church, spoke to the group on present world conditions.

He opened his remarks with the following statement: "Several thousand years ago a man noted for his wisdom said, 'The nation that forgets God shall be turned into hell.' Conditions in the world today afford a current commentary upon that statement."

In the first part of his talk, Mr. Clark referred to a very able address which it had been his privilege to hear Dr. Duane Squires of New London deliver recently before the Sullivan County Christian Workers group in which Dr. Squires mentioned four things which we Americans must think through in these days in the face of the world situation:

- (1) The causes of this war.
- (2) War propaganda.
- (3) Profits from war.
- (4) Peace.

Mr. Clark continued by saying "We must distinguish, as Lloyd George has said, between the immediate and the underlying causes of war. We must distinguish between the occasion and the causes of war. This will call for deep thinking and fairminded, able statesmanship. We are coming to see that to crush Germany or to get rid of Hitler or any other one leader would not in itself insure lasting peace in central Europe. These men are symptoms. We who believe in Democracy must demonstrate to the whole world that Democracy works and that it fills the needs of the greatest number of people in the best possible way."

Mr. Clark then told his audience that there are certain things which must always be remembered: (1) That waste and wreckage are never God's last word. That whenever in the past the lights have gone out, or seemed to have gone out, there has always been an end of the eclipse. God is forever "sending forth His spirit and renewing the face of the earth." What is now beautiful New England was once worthless land buried a mile deep under a layer of ice. Desolation and waste, wreckage and bloodshed are never God's last word. He is forever making all things new.

(2) That this is not the first time people have felt as they now do about end of civilization. "We have now reached the consummation of democratic blessedness. We have a country governed by blockheads and knaves." So felt Theodore Dwight, Congressman from Northampton, Mass., on the morning after the election of Thomas Jefferson to the presidency. "Nothing can save the British Empire from shipwreck." So said Lord Shaftesbury (1848) "I thank God I am spared the consummation of the ruin that is gathering around us." So said the Duke of Wellington on his death bed. (1851) We must not get hysterical for hysterical people never make good builders of a better world.

(3) In returning to the simple virtues of honesty and truth, righteousness and faith is our hope. Our real enemies are those within, such as ignorance, prejudice, false pride, fear and irreligion. These are the enemies from which every believer in Democracy can help to deliver his country. Yes, Democracy will be effective as we learn cooperatively "to do justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly with God."

At the business meeting contributions for Christmas gifts for children were received, and Miss Phyllis Dorr led fourteen girl scouts in the singing of Christmas carols.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

MISS IRENE HOLLAND ELECTED AS D. A. R. REPRESENTATIVE

Headmaster Ernest M. Perkins of Towle High School announced to the student body on Wednesday morning that Miss Irene Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen L. Holland of Syndicate Street, had been selected as the representative from Towle High School of the Reprisal Chapter of the D. A. R., as its candidate to compete at Concord, later in the year, for the honor of representing New Hampshire in its Good Citizenship Pilgrimage.

The Pilgrimage is an annual project of the D. A. R., practically each high school in the state having a Senior girl student sponsored by a chapter of the D. A. R., at the Concord meeting. From this group, one girl is selected to represent New Hampshire at the Continental Congress of the D. A. R., in Washington, D. C., in April, which she attends with representatives from the other forty-seven states.

Miss Holland is very popular among the students of the school and is a student of high scholastic standing. She is secretary of the Student Council and treasurer of the Senior Class. She competed in the annual Fairbanks Junior Prize Speaking contest last spring and won second honors in that competition. 1940

FLAG DAY OBSERVED BY REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

On Flag Day, Friday, June 14, twenty members and one guest met on the lawn of the late Simon A. Tenney homestead on the Unity Road, the present home and also birthplace of his daughter, Mrs. Fred B. Magown. Miss Ada R. Tenney, regent, and Mrs. Chester Pollard were also born there. Old records report that this was the first frame house erected in Newport. Josiah Stevens, one of the first selectmen in Newport, who fought in the battle of Ticonderoga in 1777, returned to his log cabin on the Unity Road and built this house in 1778, where he resided for some time.

The program opened with prayer, followed by the salute to the flag and the singing of America. The members responded to a roll call, by the regent, by reading interesting articles concerning the history of the flag and what it stands for. A box supper followed, supplemented by the hostesses, Mrs. Fred Magown and Mrs. Chester E. Pollard, with delicious cake and fruit punch. Before the setting of the sun, all stood at attention, while the flag was lowered and a benediction pronounced by the regent. June 14-1940

DAR Chapter At Newport To Convene

Will Meet Tomorrow At 3 In Home of Mrs. McCrillis

NEWPORT, Dec. 8—Reprisal chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will meet in the home of Mrs. John McCrillis on North Main street, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

THE WASHINGTON TRIP

By Winifred C. Kennedy

During the week of April 15-19 forty-nine girls from all parts of the country were entertained at the nation's capital, as the guests of the national society, Daughters of the American Revolution. Each year, a good citizenship pilgrimage is awarded to one girl from every state and one from the District of Columbia, at the time of the Continental Congress of the D. A. R.

We all arrived in Washington on Friday, April 15, and about five o'clock in the afternoon were registered at the Lee House, our hotel, and were presented with trip books, Washington guides, and our mark of identification for our stay in the city, which was a silk ribbon with our name and state printed on it. After this, informal pictures were taken of us in our rooms for use in the Washington papers, and then some of the girls went on a tour of inspection to the newspaper offices of the "Washington Sun." This was quite interesting, as we were shown how a big newspaper is printed, from the comic strips to the front-page headlines.

That evening we were shown the D. A. R. buildings, the museum, Constitutional Hall and the rooms which the various states furnish and maintain. Incidentally, it was the general consensus of opinion that the New Hampshire room was the most attractive. It is a children's attic, furnished with tiny pieces of the Colonial period. After we had seen all the rooms, we were greeted by the President General of the D. A. R., Mrs. William A. Becker, who welcomed us to the capital and spoke to us briefly on the pilgrimage. Frances Parkinson Keyes, wife of ex-Senator Keyes of New Hampshire, and editor of the National Magazine, talked a bit about her famous collection of dolls. Before leaving Constitution Hall, an official photograph was taken of the forty-nine girls and the national leaders of the D. A. R. From there we went to a formal party at the home of one of the hostesses, which marked the end of our first night's activities in Washington.

On Saturday morning, we got into the buses bright and early and drove out along the Potomac to see the cherry blossoms. The double blossoms were in full bloom and are indeed an exquisite sight. From the blossoms we went to the Washington Monument, and as we were not enthusiastic about walking up 900 steps, took the elevator to the top of the memorial. A splendid view of the city can be seen, and it is only when you are up to that height that you can appreciate the beauty of Washington; its carefully planned streets, huge buildings and famous memorials. We were taken to the Department of Justice next, which is one of the most interesting buildings in the city. We were shown exhibits such as Dillinger's death mask, bullets which killed the notorious criminal, Hauptmann's records, and many others, equally as interesting. We went through all the finger-printing rooms and were shown how the metal-detector operates. One could remain in this Department for hours, as you can in many of the other places, but as we had much more to see, we left and went to the Folger Library. This has been finished in recent years and is the most complete library of Shakespeare in the world. Many rare editions and pictures are on display in this library. The distinctive part of the building is an almost exact replica of a Shakespearean theatre, which seats about two hundred people, and is correct in the smallest detail.

We then went across the street to the Supreme Court. This is perhaps the most beautiful of all government buildings. We were received by Justice Roberts of Pennsylvania, who told us something of the functions of the court, and then we were conducted throughout the buildings before going back to the hotel for lunch.

During the first part of the afternoon we took an extended bus ride through the city, past the embassies and many historical places. We were taken out to one of the most famous memorials in the capital, the monument "Grief," by Augustus St. Gaudens, which has been called the master work of all American sculptures.

The highlight of the afternoon was the tour of the White House. We were shown into the east, red, and green rooms, and were received and welcomed in the blue room by Mrs. Franklin Roosevelt. From the White House we went to the Lincoln Memorial, which is the most beautiful memorial in all Washington. We also returned at night to the monument, when the beauty of it is enhanced by lights and stars. We took a "Washington by Night" drive in the evening and saw all the places we had seen in daylight, in moonlight. The capitol is particularly spectacular at night. The dome is bathed in light and the fountains in front of it are lit by various colors, which make the whole effect almost ethereal.

On Easter Sunday, the girls went to their individual churches if they wished, and then all forty-nine of us went to St. Thomas Episcopal Church. Because President Roosevelt and family were at the services, the congregation was of a necessity limited. We went as special guests of the pastor. After church we had luncheon with the President General at the Mayflower Hotel and then proceeded to the Washington Cathedral. This is a rather unique building, as it has been one hundred years in the making and is not completed yet. After spending some time inspecting the Cathedral and grounds, we rode out to Arlington Cemetery, which is in Alexandria, Virginia. Here we went through General Robert E. Lee's mansion and saw the tomb of the Unknown Soldier. After spending about two hours at Arlington, we were taken to Mount Vernon, home of George Washington. As this was a special tour, we were allowed to go in all the rooms and inspect at leisure all the grounds. Probably the most interesting thing at the estate is the tomb where George and Martha Washington are buried.

When we returned to Washington, we went back to the hotel and the evening was taken up with discussion of Bible stories and various other topics.

The next morning we first went to the Botanical Gardens, which consist of a series of buildings that house ferns, plants and flowers from all over the world. Leading nations send their rare specimens to be assembled and grown at our capital.

The Library of Congress was next on our schedule and this is very famous and extremely interesting. There are several floors and many, many departments, which contain hundreds of books and exhibits. We have shown a set of Stradavari valued at $200,000, the original Declaration of Independence, original Constitution of the United States, and Gutenberg Bible.

We went from the Library to the Smithsonian Institute. Bipy says that if a person stood one minute in front of each exhibit it would take him seven years to look at everything; and to anyone who has been in the Institute this seems very logical. Some of the interesting things were the gowns of the wives of the presidents, Lindbergh's "Spirit of St. Louis," Wright Brothers' plane, Post and Gatty's "Winnie Mae," animals and the evolution of a fish. As we had a particularly full afternoon, we were not able to spend as much time here as we would have liked to.

In the afternoon we went to the capitol as the guests of Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers from Massachusetts. We were conducted through all the rooms and corridors, although the Senators were not in session. We then used the smallest, most-traveled railway in the world. This is used only by Senators and runs under the capitol from the Senate to the House. The House was in session and we listened to a discussion of the nation's politics until adjournment. Then we met Speaker of the House Bankhead, father of Tallulah Bankhead, screen and stage star, and finished our tour of the capitol.

Monday evening marked the climax of our eventful trip. It was the opening session of the 447th Continental Congress and was held in historic Constitution Hall. A very impressive ceremony was held, where in each girl was presented with a pin and Mrs. Becker addressed us briefly before the session closed on the significance of being chosen to go on the pilgrimage. From there we went to a reception at the Mayflower, where we met the incoming national officers of the D. A. R.

We returned to our hotel, and the next morning the girls left at different times for their respective states. I attended the New Hampshire luncheon as guest of honor before leaving Washington in the afternoon.

I'm sure forty-eight other girls went home with a full realization of the wonderful opportunity that was afforded them when they were awarded this marvelous trip. I wish to thank everyone who was so kind and helped me to have this great opportunity, as it certainly was an experience that never will be forgotten.

Special to The Union.

LACONIA, April 2.—More than 200 members and guests Tuesday attended the 30th annual convention of the New Hampshire Daughters of the American Revolution at Laconia Tavern, one of the largest in several years. It marked change-over of meeting date from fall to spring, to conform with that of the national society. Mary Butler chapter of this city was host to the gathering, conducted by Mrs. Ralph

L. Crockett of Redstone, state regent.

Conference Highlights.

Among conference highlights were appointment of a chairman for marking New Hampshire end of the Coos trail at Errol and announcement of dedication plans for the New Hampshire golden jubilee project next June. Named as Coos trail chairman was Mrs. J. Wendall Kimball of Lancaster, state registrar, Penny pine planting project, carried out last year, constituted New Hampshire's part in observance of the 50th anniversary of the national society in 1941. More than 11,000 pine seedlings were set out in Bear Brook park, between Manchester and Concord.

New Hampshire also had a share in the furnishing of the air conditioned archives room in Memorial Continental hall, Washington, construction of which was sponsored by the national society in recognition of its golden jubilee. The Granite State D. A. R. members contributed a section of the filing equipment, given in honor of Mrs. Grace S. Hopkins of Lisbon, past state regent and present vice president general of the national society. Mrs. Hoskins expressed her appreciation of this testimonial at the executive board session.

Coos trail, important link in the original highway from Portland, Me., to Coos county was first started in 1782 by early Maine settlers but not completed to Errol, where it joined the old Abenaki Indian trail, until 1802. This early road was said to have been not much better than a bridle path, with the small streams and swampy places crossed by means of corduroys. However, it sufficed for a time, as there was but little transportation over it except by horseback in summer and by ox in winter. Coos trail now forms part of Route 26 from Colebrook, through Dixville notch and Errol, on towards Portland.

present as guests, concerning their choice of pictures.

Mrs. Fred P. Claggett described her recent trip south and Mrs. Silas C. Newell told of the tragic results to the Florida fruit trees because of the winter freezes. Mrs. Newell also spoke of the unchanged pre-war attitude of the Southern aristocrats toward the negroes. Refreshments were served.

In honor of the golden jubilee of the National D. A. R. Mrs. Fred W. Tilton read a poem and Mrs. Charles J. Emerson read an article from the organization magazine written in honor of the occasion by the president general of the society.

Charter members reminisced of the first years of the chapter and told of its founder, Mrs. Lucy Bradley. A birthday cake made for the Chapter by Mrs. Tilton was cut.

The December program will be devoted to a Christmas program with Rev. Gilbert W. Wieting, pastor of the Church of the Good Shepherd (Methodist), as the speaker. The roll call will be "Christmas stories" and hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Fred P. Claggett and Mrs. Fred C. Ide.

The year will close in June when Flag Day is observed on the fourteenth.

REPRISAL CHAPTER, D. A. R.

Reprisal Chapter, D. A. R. observed Flag Day, June 14, at the home of Mrs. Fred C. Pride in Croydon, whose old and quaint house with antique furniture made an appropriate setting for the occasion. Following a prayer by the Chaplain, Mrs. Elmer Dodge, and the salute to the Flag, all present read interesting articles or poems concerning our Flag and its history.

Mrs. Ada Tenney, regent, read from the official report of the last D. A. R. Continental Congress concerning articles which were passed. A box supper on the lawn followed, which was deliciously supplemented by the hostesses, Mrs. Pride and Mrs. Claggett. June 14-1941

There were fourteen members and one guest present.

CHAPTER D. A. R. REELECTS OFFICERS

A well attended meeting of Reprisal Chapter D. A. R. took place at the home of Mrs. Maurice F. Hall with Mrs. Silas C. Newell as co-hostess last Saturday afternoon. During the business meeting last year, officers were reelected as follows: Regent, Miss Ada R. Tenney, vice regent, Mrs. Fred C. Pride; secretary, Mrs. Levi C. Springer; treasurer, Mrs. Charles J. Emerson; registrar, Mrs. Silas C. Newell; historian, Mrs. George A. Bagley; chaplain, Mrs. Elmer E. Dodge; tag custodian, Mrs. Fred P. Claggett. Board of Management: Mrs. Daniel Luman, Miss Ada R. Tenney, Mrs. Vincent J. Brennan, Sr., Mrs. Fred W. Tilton and Mrs. George A. Bagley.

Mrs. Daniel Luman, state chairman of Junior American Citizens, told of the new clubs in this department that have been formed in schools throughout the state during the past year and especially of the fine work that is being done in Manchester and Keene. Reprisal Chapter hoped to form clubs in the Newport schools and rural districts, but it did not seem advisable owing to the existence of another club. It is hoped that Junior Citizen Clubs in the Newport district will be one of next year's achievements. The Chapter feels greatly indebted to Miss Lucile Hall, pianist, and Miss Constance Bannison, soloist, of Wollaston, Mass., who entertained delightfully with a fine musical program. Both young ladies are students at the Boston Conservatory of Music. An interesting flag quiz was conducted by the regent. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Mr. Tarr thanked the chapter for articles they presented to him for the Home.

Mrs. Edward Hunt, regent, opened the business meeting, and Mrs. Stephen Rossiter served as chaplain. James Allen and the national defense message was presented by Mrs. Adelbert Thrornton.

Mrs. Hunt announced that the flag, donated by Mrs. Richard Perkins, will be presented to the Newport Historical Society.

The next meeting will be Dec. 2 at the home of Mrs. Hunt at Croydon.

Newport, Dec. 14—Official census returns released by Washington give Newport a population of 5304, a gain of nearly 700 persons in the past ten years. The population figure in 1930 was 4659.

Newport is the fifth ranking town in the state, with Claremont No. 1 with a population of 12,144. Lebanon, Derry and Exeter, in order, are the next largest towns in New Hampshire.

Charles D. A. R. Meeting
On April 3, 1940, most enjoyable meeting of Old No. 4 chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Huntley with Mrs. Elsie Huntley as hostess. Thirteen members and three guests were present. The regent, Mrs. Lizzie D. Willard, presided. All united in the devotional and patriotic ritual after which in response to roll call many interesting facts in connection with old forts were given and some brief readings on other history topics. Among the old forts mentioned were Fort Defiance and noted fort on the United States-Canadian boundary in the days of French and Indian wars. The still older fort in St. Augustine, Fla., and the "Storer Block House" about which much blood was shed way back in 1650 to '75. Kenneth Roberts has wove bits of its history into some of his famous yarns.

The reports of the secretary, Miss Hunt, and of the treasurer, Mrs. Hutchins, were given and approved. The regent read some very interesting letters from Mrs. Harriette Whitcomb Worthen of Plymouth, N. H., and Mrs. Charlotte Tolman White of Springfield, Vt., and also reported a generous contribution from Mrs. Olive K. Whitcomb Glynn of Bellows Falls toward the marker fund. The regent then gave a glowing report of the State D. A. R. Conference which she had attended at Laconia on April 2. Mrs. Edna White added other interesting details. Besides Mrs. Willard and Mrs. White other members of the chapter who attended the meeting were Mrs. Ella Butterfield, Mrs. Norman Crowey and Miss Marion Kittridge. Mrs. Crowey took the group in her car.

Mrs. Lillian Stanley gave a very interesting talk on antique glass and furniture and several pictures of old furniture were passed around. A rising vote of appreciation was given Mrs. Huntley.

The hostess assisted by her mother, Mrs. Huntley, and sister, Mrs. Miller, and Master Tommy Chase served ice cream, angel and devil cakes and mints. Before the refreshments were served Mrs. Snow introduced her new daughter, Mrs. Parker Snow, to each lady. Other guests present were Mrs. V. T. Sherwood and Mrs. Michael Pletznier.

The May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Miller with Mrs. Gusta White as assistant hostess.

Because she is nearly helpless at present and cannot stand the excitement of having numerous visitors her birthday will be observed quietly. Friends will take mail and packages expected to arrive from all sections of the nation for her to enjoy.

Several Pay Visits

On Wednesday she was honored by a visit from Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy of Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich., past national chairman of the Real Daughters, D.A.R., and Mrs. Robert Rossiter of Claremont, state chairman, and it is expected that Mrs. Walter R. Willard of this town will pay her respects on Friday, since her birthday is on the same day. Members of various chapters, including Antrim, Charlestown and Claremont, have visited her individually during the week.

Her father, Stephen Hassam, was an eyewitness to the battle of Bunker Hill and carried water to the soldiers during the famous encounter. Shortly afterward he joined a Colonial regiment and at the end of the war removed to Charlestown where he established a clock-making business. His first wife bore him 14 children. Following her death later he married Lucy Miller, who bore him five additional children. He died in 1861 at the age of 97.

Born Sept. 18, 1849, Mrs. Randall was the fourth child of the second wife, or the 18th child of Mr. Hassam, and spent her early years here. On August 15, 1868, she married Eugene A. Randall of Springfield, Vt., and in the ensuing years spent much of her married life in that town and Claremont. She has always been a member of Col. Samuel Ashley chapter, D.A.R., of Claremont although she has received invitations to honorary membership in other chapters in the state.

At the time of her admittance as a Real Daughter, there were almost 800 in the nation. She has outlived all but one, Mrs. Anine Knight Gregory of Williamsport, Pa., who was 98 last March 23.
